

Grand Slammer for Ernie Banks

Cohen Triumphs; Dodgers, Cubs Win

By United Press International
It was short and sweet for interim manager Andy Cohen of the Phillies, who comes down from Cloud Nine today and goes back to the coaching line again.

Cohen waited 30 years for a crack at a major league managing job and when he finally got it, through a strange combination of circumstances, he certainly made the most of it.

Mauch Due Today

Out-slicking Charlie Dressen, he led Philadelphia to a 10-inning, 5-4 victory over Milwaukee last night and if nothing else, Cohen can always say he "retired" as the most successful manager in Phillies' history.

In case you've never heard of Cohen, he's the same fellow John McGraw dug up to play second base for the Giants in 1924 when McGraw wanted to give New York fans their first look at a Jewish ball player.

Now 55, Cohen was hired as a coach by the Phils this year and was delegated to lead the club last night a few hours after Eddie Sawyer suddenly quit as manager.

Cohen knew he was simply a stop-gap until Gene Mauch, the Phillies' new pilot, could join the club from Florida. But he did a job that would have made McGraw proud.

The Braves jumped in front with three runs in the first inning when Hank Aaron slammed a two-run homer and Joe Adcock followed with a solo blast. But the Phils battled back and tied the score at 4-4.

Dodgers Win

Bobby Del Greco, who had homered earlier, walked to open the 10th and stole second. Jim Coker fled out and Cohen then sent up Ted Lepcio to hit for pitcher Don Cardwell, whose homer tied the score in the sixth. Joe Koppe singled home the winning run.

Alvin Dark of the Phils collected his 2000th hit when he singled during a three-run sixth.

The Los Angeles Dodgers handed the St. Louis Cardinals their third straight loss, 3-2, and the Chicago Cubs inflicted the first defeat of the season upon the San Francisco Giants, 6-5, and the Pittsburgh Pirates crushed the Cincinnati Reds, 13-0.

Gil Hodges drove in the tying run for the Dodgers with a triple in the ninth and then scored the winning one on Bob Doolittle's wild pitch. Ken Boyer and Duke Snider each hit homers. Ed Roebuck relieved starter Johnny Podres in the eighth and was the winner. Doolittle, the Cards' fourth pitcher, was the loser.

A wind-blown pop-fly double by Frank Thomas in the ninth scored Bob Will with the winning run for the Cubs after the Giants had tied the score at 5-3 on Willie McCovey's three-run homer in the eighth.

Pappas Wins

Orlando Cepeda and Willie Kirkland also hit homers for the Giants while Ernie Banks hit the eighth grand slam of his career for the Cubs. Don Ealston was the winner.

Vern Law limited the Reds to seven hits while his Pirate teammates clubbed loser Cal McLish and four relievers for 11 safeties in ruining Cincinnati's home opener.

The American League still is playing exhibition games but the opener for Cleveland, Milt Pappas is pitching like he's hurled the Indians to a 5-1 victory over the Red Sox, Detroit defeated Washington, 8-3, and the Yankees rapped their Richmond farm hands, 15-10, on homers by Mickey Mantle, Bill Skowron, Bobby Richardson, Roger Maris and Deron Johnson.

Gary Bell, scheduled to pitch, is the opener for Cleveland, Milt Pappas is pitching like he's hurled the Indians to a 5-1 victory over the Red Sox, Detroit defeated Washington, 8-3, and the Yankees rapped their Richmond farm hands, 15-10, on homers by Mickey Mantle, Bill Skowron, Bobby Richardson, Roger Maris and Deron Johnson.

Limas Fights Here April 26

Joey Limas, Albuquerque's New Orleans, in the near future, outstanding lightweight, will fight ex-Texas featherweight

Ruben Munoz from Odessa in a 10-round fight on April 26 at the Civic Auditorium.

Promoter Ralph Garcia said that the bout has been approved by the City Boxing Commission.

Limas, and his backers, hope the fight will be a forerunner to the city's first world lightweight championship bout here against titleholder Joe Brown.

Reports indicate that Limas will mix with Brown at Tingley Coliseum in May. This hinges on Limas' disposing of Munoz and in securing the financial backing to guarantee Brown a sizeable purse.

Limas holds a six-round decision over Munoz. He outpointed the Odessa battler in a semifinal contest here in 1958.

Munoz, however, has apparently greatly paralleled Limas' rise in the Southwest fight picture. Garcia says that Munoz has won seven of his last nine pro bouts and is listed by The Ring Record Book as having an 11-7-1 mark.

Limas has rocketed into world lightweight title contention with a 21-5-1 record including big victories early this year against Houston's rugged Ray Portilla and Garland (Rip) Randall. The latter is the Texas lightweight champion.

Limas won convincing decisions at the 10-round distance from Portilla here on Jan. 7 and from Randall here on Feb. 29. Portilla recently upset Brown on a ninth round TKO in a non-title scrap at San Antonio.

Tickets for the Limas-Munoz bout went on sale today at Crossroads Bar, Turf Bar and the Varsity Barber Shop, 2408 Central SE.
