

CRACKER DIARY

Daniels' Ouster Puts Infielder In Outfield

Crackers were forced to employ a makeshift line-up in the outfield after Jack Daniels was ousted by umpire Mike Garbella in the third inning of Friday night's game. Infielder Sammy Meeks moved from short to left, with Bob Montag switching to right. Bill Reynolds went from right to Daniels' center-field station.

Crackers received a damaging jolt when plate umpire Bob Burns missed a call on Buck Riddle's roller down the third-base line in the sixth. Burns ruled the ball was foul, though Dave Jacobs picked it up on the right side of the line. It cost a run, for Don McMahon followed with a double. . . . Pels' Emil Panko, beamed in the recent series in Birmingham, will return to action Aug. 14. He watched from a box seat while the Pels did in the Crackers. . . . Manager Andy Cohen is wondering what you have to do to get ahead in the standings. Despite an 18-6 surge, the Pels have advanced only one notch, from seventh to sixth.

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION