PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies, who made Manager Eddie Sawyer so tired of baseball he up and quit, defeated the Milwaukee Braves 5-4 in their home opener Thursday night on shotstop Joe Koppe's 10th inning, run-scoring single.

Braves' starter Carl Willey was lifted in favor of Jack McMahon in the sixth after giving up a home run to the Phils' Bobby Del Greco.

Acting Manager Andy Cohen won a battle of strategy with Milwaukee's presiding genius, Charley Dressen, in the Phillies' winning 10th. He'll be relieved by new skipper Gene Mauch Friday.

Outfielder Bobby Del Greco, whose home run helped bring the Phillies from behind in the sixth, walked to open the 10th and then stole second. After catcher Jim Coker flied out, the brain work began.

Cohen sent Ted Lepcio, a right hand hitter to bat for pitcher Don Cardwell against southpaw reliever Juan Pizarro. Dressen countered with pitcher Bob Giggie, a right-hander, and Cohen then subbed John Callison, a left hand swinger for Lepcio. Callison was walked intentionally. Koppe, who had struck out three previous times and was hitless, singled off shortstop Johnny Logan's glove scoring Del Greco with the winning run.

Cardwell and Del Greco were big heroes for the Phillies in their first victory of the 1960 season—they lost their opener to Cincinnati. The 27-year-old Del Greco followed Harry Anderson's sixth inning single with his first home run, a shot into the upper left-field stands. His second inning double behind another Anderson single accounted for an earlier Philadelphia run.

The crowd of 32,038, largest to see the Phillies at home since 1958, also saw Alvin Dark's 2,000th major league hit. The victory was the first for Cardwell who won 9 and lost 10 last year.

Mules Notch A Win

WATERVILLE, April 15—Colby's Mules notched a 12-19 opening day victory over Williams College in a three hour fifteen minute slugfest that saw Mule catcher Dave Seddon and centerfielder Pete Cavari slam long home runs.

The Williams pitcher proved their own nemesis, issuing 15 bases on balls and the same number of hits.

Colby starter Ray Berberian, 6-0 last season, was relieved by Ferucci in the sixth who was followed by Loffrado and Bridgeman. Berberian picked up the win.

Seddon and Cavari paced the Mule attack with four hits apiece.
