

Miners Detour Tribe 8-7

University of Texas at El Paso's Mark Miller blasted a triple off eventual loser Randy Holman to drive home the winning run in the bottom of the 11th inning as Coach Andy Cohen's Miners tripped Southern Colorado State College 8-7 Wednesday in Dudley Field in collegiate baseball action.

Southern Colorado tallied two runs in the eighth and two more in the ninth to deadlock the contest at seven-all. The Miners, now 10-6 in season competition, took a 7-3 advantage in the seventh frame, scoring three runs.

The Southern Colorado State College Indians dropped their second duel in three starts. Both clubs will clash at 2 p.m. Thursday in Dudley Field in the final tilt of the two-game series.

On Saturday, the Miners will battle Ranger Junior College in a doubleheader, slated for 1 p.m., in Dudley Field. The Indians will head for New Mexico State University after Thursday's second game against U.T. El Paso.

Malcolm McLean, who picked up three hits in five trips to the plate, singled to reach first base in the 11th inning and Miller, who finished the contest five for six at the plate, tripled to send home the winning Miner run.

Miner hurler Larry Richardson obtained his first win of the season against one setback while Holman took the loss.
