Astros Fall 4-1

HOUSTON (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates took advantage of Don Wilson's fifth inning wildness to score four Saturday night.

After Wilson walked the bases loaded, Al Oliver drilled a single and Willie Stargell doubled home two more runs before Dave Roberts relieved Wilson.

Wilson, making his first start since May 28 after fracturing the little finger on his pitching hand, suffered his sixth defeat against four victories.

Compared to baseball coaches, college football and basketball mentors have this recruiting thing easy. The only guys with whom they have to compete for the athlete are other college coaches.

U.T. El Paso baseball coach Andy Cohen lamented that fact this week after the pros' free agent draft. "I was looking at a lot boys," Andy said, "but everybody I wanted was drafted."

On Andy's most wanted list was Houston Westchester's David Clyde, but everybody knows that Clyde will be pitching in Arlington Stadium before this summer is out.

The Texas Ranger draftee's Westchester team lost in the Class AAAA finals to Midland High Friday night, but you get the impression that if Clyde were pitching, the result would have been different.

In the quarterfinals against Dallas Kimball, he pitched a no-hitter in the opening game, then came back to strike out five in two innings of relief in the second.

One of Clyde's strikeout victims was asked, Did you see the ball? "Oh sure," he answered. "Once. . . ."
