

Full Day Of Baseball Set For Dudley Field

A full day of baseball is scheduled for Sunday in Dudley Field when eight All-Star baseball teams wrap up their summer season by displaying the best of their talent.

The first game starts at 9 a.m. and will feature girls' action as the East and West All-Stars battle in a Girls Softball League game. The second tilt at 11 a.m. features the All-Stars of the Boys' Bronco League against the All-Stars from Pueblo, Pa Mex.

There will be a brief intermission for special ceremonies starting at 1 p.m. with Rogelio Sanchez, county commissioner, serving as master of ceremonies.

Special guests include Alderman Don Anderson, Dr. Luis Niorola, Gene Stongner, Andy Cohen, Frank Porth, David Hamilton, Cedar Stathos and Bill Wood. The Rev. Benjamin Monies will say the invocation.

The Lower Valley Baseball League All-Stars will resume the baseball action when the East battles the West in the third All-Star encounter at 1:30 p.m.

The finale of the afternoon will be a game between the North and South All-Stars of the Old Timers League.

Bootlegger's Wins Handicap

SALEM, N.H. (AP) — Bootlegger's Pet, the favorite, picked up the lead at the top of the stretch and won the featured $10,000 Gen. Green Handicap at Rockingham park Saturday by a head.

The largest crowd of the meeting, 13,217, saw the winner under a ride by Tommy Sisum cover six furlongs in 1:10 and pay $5, $3 and $2.20.

IF LESSONS