

aged 64 per cent fingers.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO THIS WEEK: Hugh Mills, LeRoy Ming, Don Rasmus, and Capt. Bill Fesenmaier were among lettermen answering Coach Frank Matz' football call at Senior High ... City Playground girls decathlon championships went to Joan Steidtman, Gloria Mai and Charleen Gorell ... Pat O'Donahue, St. Pat's all-state end, and Senior High tackle Ken May, were defensive standouts as the North beat the South, 7-0, in the annual state prep football all-star contest at Madison ... Alex Groza led the U. S. basketball team to a 65-21 win over France in the finals of Olympic basketball at London ... Eau Claire Bears blanked St. Cloud, 6-0, behind the sidearm slants of George Yorke ... Eau Claire lost to Oshkosh and ace hurler Bill Hoeft, who struck out 13, 13-2, in the semi-finals of the state Legion baseball tournament at Milwaukee— Don Jordan, Gene Bridges and Jerry Sheehy pitched for the city team ... WRFW, with Marty Crowe at the mike, broadcast the key Cloverbelt baseball game between Thorp and Cornell ... Jimmy DeMaret defeated Otto Greiner in a playoff for the St. Paul Open and pocketed $2450 ... Father Paul hurled St. Pat's No. 1 to an 11-2 win over First Baptist in the semi-finals of the Church Softball playoffs ... Eau Claire Teachers Athletic Director Bill Zorn and wife were injured in an auto mishap near Bloomer ... Bears manager Andy Cohen was suspended indefinitely by Northern League president Herman White following a brawl at Aberdeen, S. D. ... and Ray Wachs won the bait-casting contest held at Half Moon Lake.