

—Milwaukee Journal

From Our Files

10 YEARS AGO

Daryl Moen, Cornell sophomore, and Kay Donais, Eau Claire freshman, students enrolled in journalism at Eau Claire State College, are winners of $100 scholarships in journalism given by the Eau Claire Press Co.

Arnold Palmer struck the year's biggest blow against the cigarette industry when he won the Masters recently and announced he feels better and stronger after being off the nicotine kick about three months.

15 YEARS AGO

State Senator Davis Donnelly is the guest speaker at a meeting of the Eau Claire County Farmers Union at the Foster School. Albert Bloom, Jr., is president of the local union.

The Star Dusk Drive-In Theatre celebrates its grand opening with two nights of fire works and Jerry Lewis starring in, "The Geisha Boy."

25 YEARS AGO

New York Giants baseball team manager Leo "The Lip" Durocher is suspended indefinitely by the baseball commissioner for slugging a fan.

Eau Claire High School hurler Don Jordan pitches a no-hit 23 to 0 win over Colfax, striking out 13 batters.

The Eau Claire Bears, weary from a 1,000-mile trip home from spring training at Myrtle Beach, S.C., are welcomed home. The 17 players and Manager Andy Cohen arrived in three cars.

40 YEARS AGO

Roda Jungerberg, 18-year-old Fall Creek high school basketball player, wins first place in the free throw contest at the Senior high school here.

Fears of riots, disorders, and even revolution motivates extensive precautions of law enforcement bodies as world communism prepared to observe May Day with strikes and demonstrations.

EAU CLAIRE

LEADER-TELEGRAM

Member Associated Press

The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to use for republication all the local news printed in this newspaper as well as all AP news dispatches.

Jack Anderson, Smith Hempstone, John Lofton, Jr., Marquis Childs columns all copyrighted 1974.

Client United Press International

Member Audit Bureau of Circulations

Advertising Representative

Branham Newspaper Sales

777 Third Ave., New York, N.Y. 10017

1520 Dain Tower, Minneapolis, Minn. 55402