

Segrist On Committees

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)

COLLEGE STATION — Tom Chandler, the Texas A&M baseball coach who doubles as president of the American Association of College Baseball Coaches has appointed Texas Tech diamond boss Kal Segrist to two committees for the 1972 year.

Segrist was appointed to one standing and one special committee. Segrist will serve on the All-American and Coach of the Year committee University Division, which is a standing committee, and also on the Development Committee.

Two other Texas baseball coaches were appointed to two committees by Chandler. Alce's Doug Osborne is on the Awards Committee and the Hall of Fame Committee. Ray Katt of Texas Lutheran is a member of the Olympic Committee and the Editorial Committee.

Ernie Johnson of Midland Lee was appointed to the High School Division Committee and will be in charge of selecting the All-District 6 team again. District 6 includes the states Texas, Arkansas New Mexico and Arizona.

Other Texas coaches appointed to committees are: Tom Hamilton of St. Edward's, All-American and Coach of Year Committee College Division; Houston Wheeler, Trinity, Membership Committee; Andy Cohen, UT-Paso, Professional Baseball Committee;

Bill Vincent, Lamar Tech, Coaching Clinic Committee; Al Ogletree, Pam American, Editorial committee; Cliff Gustafson, Texas, Collegiate Baseball, New Media and Award Committee; and Leroy Dreyer, Blinn Umler College, Junior College Division Committee.

Plus, Elmer Kosuh of St. Mary's will serve as Chairman of the Rules Committee.

Chandler appointed some 172 high school and college coaches to 21 committees.

This is the first time since Segrist took over the diamond reins at Tech back in 1958 he has been appointed by a committee by the AACBC.
