Texas Tech hopes for a bit of revenge against Dan Modlinski as the Raiders and Texas-El Paso open what could be a five-game series here today.

Modlinski no-hit the Red Raiders in the opening game of the season, winning 3-0 and coming within one batter of a perfect game.

The teams are slated to play a doubleheader both today and Saturday at 1 p.m. at Berl Huffman Field. The two teams will complete a suspended game before the doubleheader. The game played in El Paso was called in the top of the fifth with Tech leading 6-2.

UTEP coach Andy Cohen indicated he may forfeit the game.

The Miners are 5-2 on the season and are making their first appearance away from El Paso. UTEP is 2-1 against Tech and won three of four from Hardin-Simmons, taking a twin bill 2-1 and 9-7, then losing the first game of a doubleheader 5-3 and taking the finale 5-2.

Modlinski is 1-1 with a 2.19 ERA and will likely start today along with southpaw George Landreth (1-0, 1.29 ERA). Ron Wrobel, a lefty with a 2-0, 0.64 ERA, and probably Roy Stringer (0-1) will get the calls Saturday.

The Raiders will counter with Val Morin (1-1, 3.14 ERA) and David Runkel (1-1, 4.38 ERA) today and then go with Jon Davidson (0-2, 5.54 ERA) and Jerry Lee (0-0, 1.80 ERA) Saturday although Mark LePori

(1-0, 0.00 ERA) could get a starting role.

Hitting .236 as a team, Tech is led by Tom Haley, who has a .600 norm in a limited amount of trips to the plate. Paul Johnston is hitting .308 and Ron Mattson .300. Mattson has six RBIs, one behind team leader Kim Nikkel, who is hitting .273.

The Raiders will have Haley and Jim Loter (.158) dividing time behind the plate. Gary Ashby (.286) will be at first, Bob Wiebe (.214) at second and Mattson at short. Noah Castle (.111) or Pat Foster (.250) will be at third.

The outfield will be comprised of Jim Horton (.207), Mike Bewley (.071), Johnston, Bryan Cowan (.286) or Gary Sims (.167).

For UTEP, outfielder Steve Dau is the top hitter with a .333 mark. Elsewhere, the Miners will have John Dehn behind the plate, Terry Dillingham at first, Art Brabo at second, Glen Villarreal at third, David Nance at short and Bob Alsop in left and Joe Pennies in center.

Texas Tech leads its series with UTEP 16-10 since joining the Southwest Conference in 1968.
