

50 Years Ago

Yankees call up prize rookie second baseman Tony Lazzeri from Salt Lake City . . . 18-year-old Kent Greenfield posted 12-8 record for NY Giants during 1925 baseball season . . . Browns' tout Oscar Mellilo as next Nap Lajoie . . . Babe Ruth plays golf in snow drifts in New York . . . Lou Little to remain as Georgetown coach . . . Andy Cohen, up from Waco, will be first Jewish player for Giants . . . Lefty O'Doul, who hit .375 in the Pacific Coast League, is headed for the Cubs . . . Fielding "Hurry Up" Yost names his All-Time, All-Star team and omits "Red" Grange from his first team.