

Doubleheaders Test Stamina Of Baseballers

The stamina of the U.T. El Paso baseball team will be tested this week as Andy Cohen's team plays seven games in four days.

West Texas State is in town for a doubleheader, played yesterday, and a single game on tap this afternoon. Texas Tech will be at Dudley Field Friday and Saturday for two double-headers. Games start at 1 p.m.

Last Friday and Saturday the team played twin-bills with the Red Raiders. Texas Tech won three of the games.

The Miners won the second game on Friday behind the pitching of Frank Del Toro, 3-2. Del Toro gave up only four hits while striking out four.

The low point for the Miners came in the first Saturday game, losing 4-15. The Raiders had 15 walks and 12 hits.

Tim Peden leads the team in hitting at 1.000 in six at bats. Del Toro and Mike Beltran lead the pitching staff with 1-0 marks.
