

Heavy Hitting Wildcats To Meet Error Prone Miner Cleatmen

The U.T. El Paso baseball team battles the 17th ranked Arizona Wildcats in a three-game series at 1 p.m. Friday and Saturday at Dudley Field.

One game is on tap Friday with a twin-bill Saturday.

The Miners stand 9-19 after beating Regis Monday 10-3.

Barry Alburtis leads the Andy Cohen coached team in hitting with a .360 average. Joe Kuenstler and Frank Del Toro follow with .343 and .340.

U.T. El Paso has been getting good pitching performances from Mike Beltran and Ray Greggerson but fielding errors have lost games.

The Wildcats have lost only three games and hold a 26-6 edge over the Miners in past games.

stadium record set by Randy Matson.

Hoglund finished second in the shot at 62-1½.

Steve Williams set a stadium record in the 440-yard run with a blistering 45.7. It is the best time in the world this year.

Arizona has ten batters hitting over .300 with a team average over .320.

The Arizona series is the opening of the WAC season for both teams.

The Southern Division of WAC is probably in its best shape ever. Arizona State is 24-3 and ranked number one. UA is ranked 17th. New Mexico is 20-10.
