

Sun Dodgers Open Season

Professional baseball returns to El Paso at 7:45 tomorrow night at a freshly painted Dudley Field in the form of a speedy group of youngsters dubbed the Sun Dodgers.

The club is solely owned by the Los Angeles Dodgers and the parent organization has promised a brand of ball similar to theirs. The expectant result should be a team based on good pitching, speed orientated base runners and excellent fielders.

The "Sun Bums" open their five-game home stand against the Amarillo Giants. All games will begin at 7:40 p.m.

College students can gain entrance to all games on a general admission basis for only 75 cents with an SA card, saving a quarter.

Box seats cost $1.75 and "Sun Bum" buttons $1. The button gives free entrance to the opening game and a quarter to six games to be announced later.

Errors Cause Cohen Troubles

The U.T. El Paso baseball Miners, suffering from a rash of errors, will suffer some more in three game series this weekend with the number two ranked Sun Devils of Arizona State.

The opening game of the series starts at noon Friday at Dudley Field. A double-header follows Saturday beginning at 10 a.m.

Thus far the Miners, 10-22, have allowed 69 unearned runs and in the process have committed mental errors ruining run scoring opportunities.

The Wildcats won 31 of their first 34 games, as of last week, and had a team batting average of .326 versus their opponents .191 average.

U.T. El Paso, on the other hand, averages .207 against a .302 for the opposition.

In pitching the Miners sport a 5.197 earned run average while ASU pitchers have a 2.26 ERA.

Some individuals, however, have done an outstanding job for the Miners. Barry Alburis is hitting .392 with eight home runs and 30 runs-batted-in. Joe Kuenstler has a .333 average, four HR and 15 RBI. Frank Del Toro is batting .808 with six homers and 17 RBI.

Mike Beltran and Tim Peden lead the hurlers in ERA with impressive 1.47 and 1.68. Because they lack fielding support their records are 1-4 and 2-6, respectively.

In last week's action against Arizona the Miners dropped three games by scores of 9-4, 3-2 and 9-7.
