Diamondmen win two from ranked Lobo team

With Barry Alburtis leading UT El Paso's hitting, the Miner baseball team took two wins in a three game series against the University of New Mexico Lobos at Dudley Field last weekend.

The Miners won 5-4 and 6-4 and were beaten 7-5. Prior to the series with UT El Paso, the Lobos were ranked ninth in the nation by Collegiate Baseball Weekly.

IN THE ninth inning of Friday's game, the Miners were down 4-2 when Alburtis rapped a two-run homer to send the game into extra innings. Then in the 11th inning freshman Glenn Villareal drove in Joe Pennies with the game's winning run.

Ray Greggerson went 4 and 1/3 innings for the Miners as the Lobos pounded the right hander for 12 hits and four runs. Miner head coach Andy Cohen sent Jeff Hogan in to relieve in the fourth and Hogan finished the game, giving up one hit and upping his won-lost record to 4-0.

The first game of Saturday's twin-bill saw the Miners out-hit New Mexico 12-9 but lose a 7-5 decision. Larry Richardson was charged with the loss.

UT EL PASO scored five runs in the first inning of the second game to coast to a 6-4 win. Alburtis hit his fourth home run of the year with a three run blast in the opening frame. The Miners didn't stop there as shortstop Herb von Hagen doubled to score Villareal. Von Hagen was sent home on a single off the bat of Joel Kuentsler.

Bob Knox relieved Mike Kruta to pick up his third win in as many decisions.

Tomorrow the Miners travel to Tempe to take on the Arizona State Sun Devils in a three game series. The Devils currently sport a 33-5 overall record and are 3-0 in Southern Division competition. ASU swept a three game series against the University of Arizona last weekend winning 9-2, 13-10, and 7-4. Coach Jim Brock plans to start Eddie Bane (7-), Jim Otten (6-1) and Jim Umbarger (2-1) against the Miners.
