

Baseballers open new season; meet ranger JC for two

Coach Andy Cohen will give folks in the El Paso area a sneak preview of his 1974 version of Miner baseball, Friday and Saturday, with two doubleheaders against Ranger Junior College. Game time will be 1 p.m. at Dudley Field both days.

Cohen has 12 lettermen back from 1973, including two starting infielders, two starters in the outfield and his top pitcher.

UT El Paso begins the regular season, Feb. 28, with a doubleheader against Hardin-Simmons at Dudley Field. In all the Miners will play a total of 44 home games, including nine in the tough Southern Division of the Western Athletic Conference.
