

BARON BRIEFS — What they've trumpeted about Barone making big league fielding plays is true. The little guy owns a shotgun for an arm, too. . . . And a fine steal it was also, that catch by Suplizio on Dave Jacobs in the ninth.

Tonight is Ladies', Teen-Ager's and Foster Father's Night at Rickwood . . . and the old ball yard really looks fresh after those June shower baths.

No certain word yet on Stan Johnson's malady. Chicken pox is still the best guess. . . . And if Stan had been around last night, Manager Phil Page probably would have pulled Gebhard in the ninth when Panko loomed as the tying run.

Pel Manager Andy Cohen did an excellent job of pushing in relief pitchers last night. To the rescue of Grunwald went Clarence Churn, Ronnie Blackburn and Les Phillips. They allowed the Barons two hits the last five frames. Phillips got the win.

Mrs. Elizabeth Prigge, mother of Baron Infielder George, was back in home country last week when she made the New Orleans-Mobile swing with the Barons. Mrs. Prigge, now of Brooklyn, lived in Mobile eight years. George was born there.
