

Benny Marshall says— From football country, here's vote for Barons

"Well, you might win it now with your pitching coming around again," said Andy Cohen as he waited for the cab that took him to Hartwell Field for two New Orleans losses to Mobile.

"How about it?" asked Red Drew, looking out across Ladd Stadium where the professional Detroit Lions and Chicago Cardinals made ready to let go in a real pro-type battle of offense . . . "Are the Barons going to hold up"
