

Yanks, Bears end tie-up, Cohen fired

DENVER, Sept. 25.—(P)—The New York Yankees and the Denver Bears of the American Association came to the parting of ways yesterday. The two clubs had a working agreement.

The Bears, in turn, fired Andy Cohen, their manager, during the 1958 campaign when Denver finished fourth in the Class AAA baseball circuit.

ANDY COHEN Robert S. Howsam, president of the Denver club, had no comment. Yankee officials were not available for a statement in New York.

Denver purchased the Yankees' Kansas City franchise for $75,000 four years ago when the old Philadelphia Athletics moved westward.

DENVER FINISHED league play third in 1955 and second in 1956 and 1957. The Bears won the Junior World Series in 1957.

Several Denver players moved up to the Yankees, including Ryne Duren, Don Larsen, Darrell Johnson, Tony Kubek, Marvin Thornberry, Norm Siebern, Zack Monroe and Bobby Richardson. The Yanks also plucked Ralph Houk, Denver manager, after the 1957 season and assigned him to the New York coaching staff.

Cohen, contacted in El Paso, Tex., took his release in stride.

"That's the way it goes in baseball," Cohen said. "I enjoyed the experience. . . ."
