

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/435451247/>

A WELL EARNED HANDSHAKE — Bob Taylor, fourth from right, a Texas Department of Public Safety patrolman and El Paso Lions Club District Director for Crippled children's camp, extended a "thank you" handshake on behalf of the members of the Five Points Lions Club to those who aided the club by donating their time and effort in transporting children to the annual crippled children's camp sponsored by

Texas Lions organizations. Those honored during the Lions Wednesday afternoon meeting are from left, W. B. Warren, El Paso Natural Gas; Buddy Harris, Empire Club; Dick Bills, Bills and Ellis Feedlot; John Phillips, Phillips Homes; Taylor; Andy Cohen, Dickshire Distributors; Jim Parker, Farah Manufacturing; and Caby Siemmen, Caby's Garden Center.