

Lions See Film On Police Duties

A film showing the training and duties, the hazards and responsibilities of police officers in the U.S., was shown to Downtown Lions Friday in the Empire Club.

The film, narrated by Danny Thomas, film and TV star, was presented by the community relations divisions of El Paso's Police Department, shown by Ray Estrada.

Former Chicago Cubs manager and first baseman, Charlie Grimm, was a special guest, introduced by Lion Andy Cohen who is a friend who played in the big leagues when Grimm was an active player.
