

Miner Baseballers Open Practice

University of Texas at El Paso baseball practice goes full scale at 3 p.m. Wednesday as the Miner diamond crew begins preparations for a March 3 season-opener at Dudley Field against University of New Mexico.

Head baseball coach Andy Cohen and assistant O. C. (Krusch) Kruschwitz expect approximately 55 players out for the opening of practice. Workouts for pitchers and catchers started Friday with about 25 players out, including several of the regulars from last season's team who went out early to start getting in shape.

A meeting is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. Monday at Memorial Gym for all who plan to try out for the baseball team. Purpose of the meeting will be to give players instructions on the practices and to get their names on a practice roster.

Pitchers and catchers will continue to work at 3 p.m. Monday and Tuesday at Hugo Meyer Field. About 12 pitchers were out for the initial workouts Friday and Saturday.

At present the team faces a 31-game schedule with the probable addition of three more games. The March 3 opener with UNM will be a doubleheader with a single game scheduled for the following day.
