

UTEP Opens Baseball Slate Friday

University of Texas at El Paso opens its fifth baseball season this weekend at Dudley Field with a three-game series against University of New Mexico.

The Miners and Lobos clash in a single game at 3 p.m. Friday and return Saturday for a double header with the first game set for 12:30 p.m. The series opens a 33-game schedule with 21 games scheduled for Dudley Field.

Andy Cohen begins his fifth year as coach of the Miners. He, with O. C. (Krusch) Kruschwitz as his assistant, has been at the helm of the Miners since baseball was added to the UTEP varsity sports program.

The Miners compiled a 17-12 record last season and in four seasons are four games over .500.
