

Around El Paso

By RUBY BURNS

Miss Shelley Agatha Scott and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scott Jr. will go to Lubbock to spend the weekend with friends as they start Shelley on her way to Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., where she will be a freshman. Shelley, a graduate of Austin High School, will go from Lubbock to Amarillo to ride the train from there with a group of other girls en route to Stephens.

Another El Paso girl going to Stephens is Miss Marina Cohen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew H. Cohen. Marina, a sophomore, will leave later for college.

* * *

Miss Susan Funkhouser will arrive Thursday from Ocean City, N.J., where she has spent the summer. She will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Funkhouser, 6108 Pinehurst, and will leave Sept. 16 for the American University, Washington, D.C., to enroll in the Semester-in-Washington program. She will be returning to Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, Va., later in the year.

Ruby Burns