

FORT YEARS AGO
January 11, 1928
(Wednesday)

Duties collected at the port of El Paso were up more than a third last year over 1926. The bulk of the increase, according to W. W. Carpenter, assistant collector of customs, was from cattle imports.

Local sports fans saw a good chance for Andy Cohen, El Paso baseball star, to stay with the New York Giants in the sale of Rogers Hornsby to Boston, announced today.

Miss Bertha Pool, sister of State Rep. Adrian Pool, died yesterday in the home of her sister, Mrs. Van C. Wilson, 3205 Pershing.