

Touchdowners Set Final Meeting Today

Final meeting of El Paso Touchdown Club will be a four-way report on the athletic picture of University of Texas at El Paso Monday noon at El Paso Sheraton.

Reports are expected on the recruiting picture in football; the baseball picture from coach Andy Cohen; the basketball scene from Don Haskins and the track outlook from Wayne Vandenburg.

Meetings of the booster club will resume in September before the first football game.

Luncheon is to be served at 11:30 a.m. and the program to begin at 12 noon.

A Duck Hawk can fly as fast as 200 miles per hour.