

Committees For Olympic Cage Exhibition Named

Appointment of subcommittees to handle details of the special exhibition basketball game between the Texas Western All Stars and the Mexican Olympic team in the coliseum May 2 was announced Saturday by John Phelan, chairman of the sports development committee of the U.S.- Mexican Border Commission.

Phelan was named chairman of the committee and Andy Cohen vice chairman recently by Endicott Peabody, President Lyndon B. Johnson's special representative to the commission.

Named to handle promotion and publicity for the game were Saul Kleinfeld, chairman, Mike Brumbelow, John McFall and Orba Malone.

Sal Ramirez was named to head a committee for distribution of poster and arrangements for overhead streamers.

Mrs. Thad Steele, as chairman, George McCarty and Jim Bowden form the committee for tickets and for operation of the coliseum for the game.

County Judge Colbert Coldwell heads the committee charged with moving the old coliseum basketball floor and baskets to Monumental Bull Ring in Juarez for a similar game scheduled there May 1.

Albert Armendariz is chairman and Warren Hoyt vice chairman of the group in charge of the halftime show, pre-game ceremonies and immigration matters for the game.

Hal Dean, Sr., chairman and Sal Berroteran make up the finance committee for the operation, while Mrs. Ramiro Robles will handle solicitation of advertising.

Kleinfeld was named team representative, while the Chamber of Commerce, led by Oliver Goodman, will handle dissemination of information.

Forming the future planning committee of the group are Sal Ramirez, as chairman, Tom Rush, Ted Kepple, Gene Jordan and Kleinfeld.

Sun Kings, Missions Split Pair

Special to EL PASO TIMES
SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. — El Paso's Sun Kings split a double-bill with the San Antonio Missions here Sunday as manager Chuck Tanner got good mileage out of pitchers he is counting on during the Texas League season which opens April 16.

Bill Harrelson, moving up to the Sun Kings from San Jose, hurled five strong innings in losing cause in the first game, won by San Antonio in nine innings, 3-2. Harrelson struck out nine batters in his five frames and showed strong right-handed talent.

Ken Tatum, who has been mentioned as Tanner's starter for the Sun King home opener at Dudley Field April 18, worked five innings but did not get the victory as the Kings scored late for a 2-1 advantage. Tanner said he was pleased with Tatum's condition, and that the young Alabamian was "throwing real strong."

Jim DeNeff led El Paso's stickwork, getting four for six in the two games including a double and a two-run homer. He appeared fully recovered from a groin injury which had sidelined him several days.

With Sunday's series finale cancelled by the Cub organization in tribute to the death of Dr. Martin Luther King, the Kings will return to Holtville, Calif., and resume heavy work Monday. They will break camp April 14, gathering in Albuquerque Aug. 15 to prepare for the opener.

Fuentes Pitches Fabens Over LPI

Victor Fuentes held Lydia Patterson Institute hitless until the seventh inning as he pitched Fabens to an 1-5 victory in a high school baseball game Saturday at Ascarate Park.

Eugene Contreras paced the Fabens batting attack with a double and two singles in four times at bat. Mike Sanchez added a double for the game's only other extra base hit.

Fuentes struck out 11 batters in going the distance. He gave up four runs in the seventh when LPI got all three of its hits. Taye was the LPI starter and was charged with the loss.
