

Prell Heads Mt. Sinai Men's Club

IRV PRELL

Irv Prell of 6304 Westwind, was elected president of the Men's Club of Temple Mt Sinai at its annual meeting Wednesday.

Other new officers are Bill Rosen, 1st vice president; Lloyd Purvin, 2nd vice president; Dean Rothbardt, secretary and Charles Fruithandler, treasurer.

Elected to the Board of Directors are Robert Bendalin, Marvin Diamond, Mike Golden, Henry Silberman, Dr. David Weinstein, and Paul Ellenberg. Dick Foss, Andy Cohen, Monroe Corn, and Nate Stern will serve the board as hold-over members.

As president of the Men's Club of Temple Mt. Sinai, Prell will oversee committees responsible for such club projects as the Sports Award Banquet, Thanksgiving Eve dance, scholarship to summer camps, special sports events for youngsters of members; Sunday morning breakfasts, the annual retreat, ushering for Temple services, supervising Temple youth groups, and the Interfaith Banquet with other local churches.

Prell has been a member of Temple Mt. Sinai since 1957 when he first came to El Paso with his family. He has served on the board of directors six years and has participated in most of the club's activities. Prell has been associated with Tri-State Broadcasting Co. since 1958 and is presently sales manager of KTSM AM and FM radio.