

Andy Heads Kings For Amarillo Set

Special to EL PASO TIMES
AMARILLO, Tex. — With a new manager at the helm, the El Paso Sun Kings bring their five-game winning streak to Potter County Stadium here Tuesday to open a three-game Texas League series with the Amarillo Giants. Gametime is 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Andy Cohen, former major league player and manager who has acted as coach for the El Paso team for the past several years, will guide the club through its Amarillo set while manager Chuck Tanner takes a brief break to attend the graduation of his oldest son in New Castle, Pa.

Tanner left the team Monday afternoon in San Antonio, after the final doubleheader of the series in the Alamo City was rained out. He will rejoin the Kings here Thursday.

Tall Tommy Murphy, who rejoined the team in San Antonio after a stint of military reserve duty, will take the hill in the opening game here Tuesday. A doubleheader Wednesday night — picking up a rained-out game on El Paso's last visit — will find Veru Geishert and Rudy May drawing the hill chores.

The Kings have won five games in a row since their last loss, which was at the hands of Amarillo in the opener of a four-game set in El Paso. The Kings won the last three games in El Paso and then won both games in San Antonio.

Monday's rainout, which left the Kings victors in 17 of their last 20 games, actually boosted the El Paso club half a game in the western division standings, since the Albuquerque Dodgers, the division leaders, lost to Amarillo.

The Kings will be playing without the services of Don Wilkinson, slugging outfielder who cut his foot Saturday in San Antonio and missed Sunday's game.

Pitcher Rick Evans has been sent to San Jose, and pitcher Jon Lervig has been reactivated from the disabled list.
