

Banquet Recognizes Top Junior Athletes

Father Yermo elementary school held its annual sports award banquet June 2.

Ismael Tercero was master of ceremonies for the event and Andy Cohen was guest speaker. Coaches Susan Mena, John Maya and Rick Orona presented awards to the outstanding pee wee and varsity boy and girl in each sport.

In addition, ribbons from the Parochial School District Track Meet were presented.

Recipients of the awards were as follows: Johnny Maya, and Eliseo Virchis, football; Lilia Ortega and Virginia Olmos, volleyball;

Manny Reyes, Oscar Gonzalez, Lupe Liano, and Cecilia Armendariz, basketball; Pete Ezurraga and Joe Quesada, baseball; Richard Martinez and Sylvia de la Rosa, track.

Awarded ribbons were, Sylvia de la Rosa, pee wee girls division, first place, softball throw; Soledad Sanchez, pee wee girls division, second place, 100-yard dash; Armando Renteria, Richard Martinez, Eliseo Virchis and Harvey Quiroz, varsity boys division, third place, 440 and 880 relays.

Selected as most athletic were Oscar Gonzalez and Susie Ybarra, varsity division, and Ruben Munoz and Sylvia de la Rosa, pee wee division.

The Scholastic Plaque, a special award for maintenance of high scholastic average was presented to Miss Ybarra and Armando Renteria.

New Editors Announced At Coronado

New editors of Coronado's publications will be Elaine Corn of Explorer, newspaper, and Nancy Oppenheimer of the Legend, yearbook.

Helping Elaine on the newspaper will be Demetra Ikard, assistant editor; Abby Grant, copy editor; Laurie Reedman, features; Chris Brown, advertising manger; Terri Woods,