

Las Cruces To Host Tournament

Special to EL PASO TIMES

LAS CRUCES, N.M. — Las Cruces will host the American Legion state baseball tournament Aug. 15-17 at Apodaca Park.

Tournament director Al Apodaca says that six teams will take part in the tournament for the state title. Taking part will be teams from Los Alamos, Albuquerque, Alamogordo, Las Cruces and either Lovington or Roswell. The Las Cruces team will defend its title won last year in Santa Fe.

Las Cruces Joe Quesenberry Post 10 of the American Legion will host the participating players to a banquet at New Mexico State University's Milton Student Center on Aug. 14.

Dr. Edwin L. Peterson of Logan, Utah, National Vice Commander of the American Legion will be the main speaker. Also scheduled to address the banquet is Andy Cohen of El Paso, a former major league baseball player.
