

FORTY YEARS AGO

September 23, 1928

(Sunday)

For the second time in two games, Andy Cohen, El Paso major league star, hit a home run as the New York Giants battled the St. Louis Cardinals for the National League championship.

Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, announced at his El Paso home that he would probably sell his 650,000 acres of Three Rivers land in October. The land is operated by a corporation formed 15 years ago by members of the Fall and Harry Sinclair families.
