

HURLER FOSTER OLDEST IN OLD-TIMERS BATTLE

Eddie Foster, 75, will have the distinction of being the oldest player in uniform in point of service for tonight's Old-Timers game between former members of the Saints and Millers. Foster will be on the mound for the Millers, the same as he was 52 years ago.

Tonight's game is three innings or one hour start—Eddie Foster, p; reserves—Eddie Popowski, Angelo

The lineups: St. Paul — Julian Wera, 3b; Ollie Bejma, 2b; Oscar Roettger, 1b; Dick Williams, cf; John Goryl, rf; John Mauer, lf; Eddie Patrow, ss; Ken Staples, c; Ernie Rudolph, p; reserves—Len Smith, Dwain Sloat, Gene Kelly, Art Herring, Monty Stratton and Cy Buker. Millers—Whity Weidell, 3b; Andy Cohen, 2b; Red Robbins, cf; George Wilson, rf; Bill Jennings, ss; Gil Neumann, 1b; Lefty Johnson, lf; Kelly Roth, c; Eddie Forster, p; reserves—Eddie Popowski, Angelo Giuliani, Carl Eng, Jake Schmitt and Garland Buckeye with umpires Jimmy Lee, Mike Briscese and Omy Hahn.