

Miners Suffer Baseball Blow

By JIM SLEEPER

The University of Texas at El Paso baseball team has suffered a blow with the loss of Johnny Miller for Friday's series opener with Texas Tech at Dudley Field.

Miller, the starting first baseman who is currently wielding a hot bat, pulled a ham string muscle yesterday during the second game of a doubleheader in Tucson with the Miners losing both games to the University of Arizona — 5-0 in the first and 14-5 in the second game.

COACH ANDY Cohen noted that Eastwood prep star Kevin Berger would take the starting first sacker assignment while senior Jesse Lujan will be the starter on the mound when the Miners face Texas Tech in a 2 p.m. game.

The University of Arizona pitching staff is "the best collegiate group in the nation," Cohen said. "The pitching was what hurt us — those boys are great and two have turned down major league contracts to finish up their schooling."

MINER BATTERS fanned 11 times in the first game won by southpaw Jim Provenzano and 15 times in the second game taken by Alan Mieren.

"Lynn Hunt pitched a good game," Cohen said. "We had a lot of help from our catcher, Ron Hix, who was good behind both the plate and the bat."

HUNT SUFFERED the first game loss and starter Bill Onick was knocked off the mound in the second inning of the second game. Arizona scored eight runs in the second inning to dump U.T.-El Paso which was error ridden with four errors.

"The pitching and a lot of speed is what beat us," Cohen added.
