

Mexican Team To Play Here

Furniture basketball team will make up the nucleus of the All Stars, has been assigned to handle promotion for the event. The All Stars will include many former University of Texas at El Paso players, including, hopefully, graduating seniors from this year's team, and possibly one or two Juarez basketball stars.

PRESENT WITH Gov. Peabody and Congressman White to make the announcement was David Carrasco, sports attache of the U.S. Embassy at Mexico City, who said the games will serve as a kick-off to Mexico's Student Olympic Games in which teams from 15 or so Mexican states will compete throughout Mexico.

Mr. Carrasco said the Mexican Olympic team is of first caliber, having placed high in world competition, and is one of the key hopes for Mexico in the forthcoming Olympics at Mexico City. He said the Juarez game may be televised to Mexico City.

MR. PEABODY said the border cities games are an outgrowth of President Johnson's
