

Colorado State Gains Win—

Miners Suffering Costly Mistakes

Coach Andy Cohen's University of Texas at El Paso Miners baseball team will be looking for a split today with Colorado State College following a 10-9 loss at Dudley Field.

The Miners, with a 3-8 record, handed coach Thurman Wright's team their first victory through mistakes yesterday in the first of a two game series.

"WE MADE TOO many mistakes," Coach Cohen said today. "They hit the ball good and stuck in good. We showed too much inexperience."

Errors and mental mistakes have cost the Miners most of their eight losses.

According to Colorado State coach Wright, his team does not have the experience either. "All our pitchers are inexperienced. We have some junior college kids but they are still not experienced."

JESSE LUJAN today started for the Miners while southpaw Darrell Brumley will hurl for Colorado State, which has a 1-2 record following a season opener with the New Mexico Lobos.

Bill Diesselhorst relieved Terry Witt in the third inning and was charged with the Miners loss after giving up a two run homer to right fielder Jim Ziegler in the eighth inning after the Miners had taken an 8-7 lead.

Lynn Hunt, a hurler and outfielder, led the Miners with five runs battle in on a double, home-run and a single while Charley West added a homerun in the seven run third inning.
