

Cohen Batters In Albuquerque For Four Games

Coach Andy Cohen's University of Texas at El Paso baseball squad left today to play a four-game series in Albuquerque against both the University of Albuquerque and University of South Dakota.

Lynn Hunt was scheduled for the opener tomorrow with the Miners playing both the Albuquerque and South Dakota squads while games were slated for Friday and Saturday.

OTHERS SELECTED as possible starters after a 10-day lay-off from competition include Jesse Lujan, Bill Onick, Terry Witt, Ken McAnally and Don Wilson. Howard MacDonald, the tall cager, was left behind due to a sore elbow which may be operated on when school lets out.

"We will try to maintain our pace," Cohen said today. "We have an 11-10 record and want to play over .500 ball this year. I hope our long layoff won't hurt us because we have been practicing daily."
