

The Gadabout

The Hospitality Club luncheon held in the Lancer's Club, high atop the Coronado Towers Building was a double delight Wednesday thanks to Mrs. George Weisheit. Shirley, radiant and shining in a sun gold shift, did not want to climb to the top of Mt. Franklin so decided that the Lancers Club would be the perfect spot to shout to the world that she is going to become a grandmother, and this she did, much to the delight of the lovely ladies assembled at the luncheon.

Norma Jackson, vivacious president of the Hospitality Club, presided at the affair in a pert black and white A line outfit and was named to represent the club in the El Paso Mother of the Year Contest.

Shirley McManus, chairman of the nominating committee, announced the new slate of officers are Mmes. Nora Lee Fort, president; Esther Clauch, first vice president; Betty Morton, second vice president; Dee Welch, secretary; and Rose Johnson, treasurer.

Seated at the head table was the president elect, Nora Lee, ready for summer in a bold design dress of aqua blue, chartreuse and yellow. She goodnaturedly offered her face to the people from Fashion 220 to use as a model for their program as did Norma Clemons and both girls did a smashing job of applying thirteen different cosmetic needs to their skin while about 65 women watched them. Also at the head table was the pretty New Arrival of the Month, Jeannette Richardson, in a soft draped crepe dress of blush pink with white touches at the wrists and throat.

It is always fun to visit with these ladies who take the hospitality part of their name seriously. Carole Faisst, with her wonderful sense of humor, looked great in her ultra chic grey sheath and jacket with bright yellow accents and her adorable flower pot hat chock full of white and yellow daisies.

It was so nice to talk with Dorothy Rutter, looking trim and attractive in black . . . Merle Hickman, beautiful as always, in a stunning navy complimented with a touch of white . . . Margaret Hubbard, in a most appealing avocado and white print suit, is one of the most active women ever . . .

Good to see again, Rosemary Nash, past president of Hospitality Club . . . Jane Guy, lovely as ever in navy with gold accents, is also a past president . . . Helen Lee, in a vibrant pink two piece outfit, is still kept busy with daughters wedding plans . . . glimpsed in the crowd Maggie Burke . . . Muriel Gillespie . . . Essemery Abrahamson . . . Clara Lee . . .

Dicksie Dandridge, airline stewardess who has made more than 30 flights into Saigon, Vietnam, is spending the Easter holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dandridge of 4606 Emory way. Dicksie, who has written her parents vivid accounts of her experiences, was the subject of a feature story in The Herald Post on March 19.

Marina Cohen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Cohen, has arrived from Stephens College in Columbia, Mo. where she is a sophomore student. She will spend the Easter holidays with her parents and will return to school on April 17.

Suzanna Wilcox and her fiancé, Byron Cox, were honored at an informal dinner party given by Suzanna's Godparents, Dr. Andres Eck and wife, Jane. The party was given in the Eck home at 300 Terry drive.

Jane used yellow, the bride's favorite color, in decorating for the party. The centerpiece on the buffet serving table was of yellow blossoms.

Guests at the affair included Suzanna's parents, Dr. Leigh and Robert Wilcox . . . sister, Cynthia Tashilk and husband, Tom . . . the bride's grandmother, Suz Tidmore of Deming . . . Doris and Kurt Goetting . . . Lunda and John Kemp . . . Ruthy Kay and Jim Brennand, all good friends of the happy pair.
