

Section B—Page Sixteen

El Paso Herald-Post, Friday, May 24, 1968

El Paso Jewish Community Leader Receives Israel Medal at Dinner

DR. RAVEL

President Named Of Men's Club

Dr. Vincent Ravel, president of the Jewish Community Council and choir and cultural leader, will be honored at a testimonial dinner in his honor to be held on Sunday, June 9, at the El Paso Country Club, at 6:30 o'clock.

The medal is awarded to Americans in recognition of outstanding efforts which advance the cause of Jewish survival and the economic upbuilding of the State of Israel. The medal was designed and struck in Israel in the name of Prime Minister Levi Eshkol.

THE DINNER IS BEING sponsored by the El Paso Israel Bond Committee.

Israel Bond Committee, marking Israel's 20th anniversary of independence. The award is made by the National Israel Bond Organization, on behalf of the Government of Israel. Milton D. Feinberg is the general chairman of the El Paso Israel Bond Committee.

Dr. Ravel has a long, distinguished record of service in this community, extending in every field of humanitarian endeavor. He is a native of El Paso and received most of his early education in this city.

HE SERVES AS A Director of Departments of Radiology of Providence Memorial Hospital and R. E. Thomas General Hospital. He is a Board Member of the American Cancer Society and the Tuberculosis Association and the College of Engineering. His wife, Annette, is a former president of the County Medical Society.

Information and reservations for the dinner may be obtained by calling 364-4638.

want an angel in your home? buy this chair

119⁹⁵ $7 A MONTH

Reg. $139.95 "Angel" chair from California. Graceful sculptured styling radiates from this unique design covered in cut, un-cut velvet in 2-tone patterns of marine, bronze/olive, avocado or gold. The 41 in. high back makes this ideal for a man or woman. Richlux cushions add wonderful comfort to the superb styling.

American
FURNITURE STORES
• Downtown • Northgate • Bassett

exquisitely carved tops on these tables are protected by heavy glass ...four Mediterranean styles, now your choice...$69

In this lovely selection of Mediterranean tables you'll find just the style you've been looking for. 25x25x21 1/2 in. commode style with one drawer. 25x25x21 1/2 in. end table with one drawer. Poe style with one door. 54 in. long cocktail table with beautiful moulded front. Come in, select one or a complete set... your choice, each, $69. At all 3 stores.

FREE PARKING

AT 405 N. OREGON OR ANY OTHER PARK 'N SHOP GARAGE OR LOT

Secretaries Speaker Is Named

William D. Goldfarb, career agent for Southwestern Life Insurance Co., will be guest speaker at the monthly dinner meeting of the El Paso and Sage Chapter of the National Secretaries Assn. (International) to be held at 5:30 p.m. in the Cortez Hotel on Tuesday, May 28. He will speak on "Considerations for the Career Woman on Life Insurance."

Goldfarb

Mr. Goldfarb, a chartered life underwriter, has been associated with Southwestern Life Insurance Company for the past 21 years. He is a graduate of the University of Texas at Austin. In 1950 Mr. Goldfarb was named Life Insurance Man of the Year by the El Paso Association of Life Underwriters. For the past two years he has been a panelist on the Estate Planning Conference for Women at the University of Texas at El Paso.

Following the dinner and program Mrs. James F. Volmer will be installed for a second term as president of the Sun and Sage Chapter, N.S.A. Mrs. Volmer is secretary to Mr. J. E. Glick, senior vice president, El Paso National Bank. Other officers to be installed are Mrs. James V. Buffone, vice president; Mrs. Gerald G. Wilson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Betty Feste, recording secretary; Mrs. Lillian Ashe, treasurer; Mrs. Dorothy Hammons and Mrs. Cesar C. Castillo, directors; Mrs. Gayle M. Boruff, immediate past president, will conduct the installation.

El Pasoans Return

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Lambka, of El Paso, have just returned from Rockford, Ill., where they attended the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Hazel Lambka, who died Sunday. Mrs. Lambka is also survived by a daughter, Mrs. John E. Hoss, and a sister, Mrs. Florence Brunen, of Rockford.

DO YOU KNOW...? Playwright Israel Zangwill called America "God's melting pot" in his "The Melting Pot."

American prices a large collection of regular $29.95 fine quality lamps to light your eyes with savings... your choice...$22

A fabulous collection of fine quality lamps at a light-on-your-budget price. Quality lamps in styles to complement any decor. Choose from metal, lead glass and metal, metal and bronze, china and metal. Each with its own fashion matched shade and all with superb Empire gold finish. At this light-fantastic price buy one or a pair for yourself... they make great gifts for new brides, too!

AMERICAN FURNITURE STORES • DOWNTOWN • NORTHGATE • BASSETT