El Paso manager Chuck Tanner, coach Andy Cohen and coach Syd Cohen have been in baseball most of their lives. They've all seen some great games, including those they saw during their tenures in the Major Leagues.

"But this has to be the greatest," Tanner said.

"This is one of the best games ever played in the Texas League and one of the best ever anywhere," Andy said.

"It's certainly one of the best I've seen," Syd said.

JOHN PHELAN, former general manager of the Sun Kings, was so thrilled by it that he made an emotional presentation in the club office afterwards. He presented his own personal picture of the 1962 El Paso team which won the Texas League pennant to present general manager Fred Herschleder.

"I'd been wanting to give this to the club for some time," Phelan said. "This is the time."

IT ALL HAPPENED after the Sun Kings defeated San Antonio 12-11 last night at Dudley Field.

The Kings trailed 11-5 going into the eighth inning. With news that Albuquerque, which was one game ahead in the Western Division, was losing to Amarillo being announced over the public address system, the Sun Kings
