

Lions Name Outstanding Young Men

Bill Latham, senior at El Paso High School, and Juan Salvador, Jefferson High senior, have been selected as "Student Lions of the Month" by the El Paso Lions Club.

This award is given to boys who have been outstanding in school, church, and social activities and have been both a good student and a good citizen.

Bill is a member of Senior National Honor Society, Language Honor Society, Slide Rule Club, and Masque and Gavel Club.

A football and track letterman, Bill is working as a student assistant in charge of Girls Poetry in the up-coming El Paso High School debate tournament.

Juan is president of the Jefferson National Honor Society and is an All-District baseball player. He is a member of the Number Sense Club, which is an organization that works with numbers for speed and accuracy.

Juan, who plans to attend college and major in mathematics, said, "Through this award, I have gotten to meet many interesting people." He listed Judge Sam Blackham, Andy Cohen, and John Phelan as some of those he has met.
