the second-place Tigers and cannot afford another division loss. El Paso High gets scoring from George Hodge, Bruce Andrews, Ernie Barraeta and Ronnie Kahn, while Irvin is paced by sophomores Steve Davis and Rocke Ellis and junior Roger Dyal. Bowie is faced with virtual elimination from the Western race when it tangles with top-placed Austin, undefeated in division play. The Bears must win to stay in serious contention. Burges, two games back of Bel Air in the East, is expected to from a pool screened from the other nine league members. The Bulls will be allowed to take two players from each club after the freezing of seven men on the 12-man active roster of each club. The pool will be established, Kennedy said at a news conference, about May 1, before the NBA's regular player draft. In the player draft, the new Chicago entry will pick 10th in the first round, will get the third and fourth picks in the second round, and every 10th pick thereafter.

Fulwiler Named Kings Chairman

An optimistic note was sounded Thursday for the El Paso Sun Kings in the 1966 Texas League baseball season as H. D. Fulwiler was named chairman of the board of the El Paso Sports Association, which underwrites operation of the Class AA baseball team.

The annual membership meeting heard telephonic greetings from California Angels general manager Fred Haney, vice president Marvin Milkes and farm director Roland Heman. Each Angel representative promised that a strong team would be fielded for the coming season. Officers elected for the year are John Phelan, president; Harry Elliott, Andy Cohen, Jack Niland and Chick Arnold, vice presidents; Bob Haynsworth secretary and assistant treasurer and Dorr Miller treasurer and assistant secretary.
