

Coach Clinic To Start Friday

Sun Country Coaching Clinic will start 5:30 p.m. Friday at Sheraton Motor Hotel with guest speaker of the first annual extravaganza, Mike Brumbelow, scheduled to talk at 6:30 p.m.

Friday will be a chance for all coaches to meet and will be a preview to the 8 a.m. schedule of lectures, demonstrations and seminars on Saturday at Texas Western.

Coach Bobby Dobbs of Texas Western and his staff — Bill Michael, Y. C. McNease, Dave Nusz, Harvey Griffin and Cliff Speegle — will conduct the lectures in football.

Basketball lecturing will be handled by Miner cage head coach Don Haskins and his assistant, Moe Iba.

Andy Cohen will take care of the demonstrations in baseball.

Dobbs, who led the football Miners to a 8-3 season and a win over Texas Christian University in the 1965 Sun Bowl last season, will speak specifically on football organization, while Haskins, whose 1966 Miners are undefeated and in the NCAA basketball playoffs, will talk on basketball organization.

Dobbs will lecture from 10-11 a.m., while Haskins will speak from 11 a.m. to 12 noon.

Special track lecturer will be Hugh Hackett, of the University of New Mexico. His Lobo thinclads defeated defending NCAA champion University of Southern California last season and are given a fine shot at the NCAA title this year.

Hackett will speak on track training programs and specific problems that track mentors run across.

More than 400 coaches are expected for the clinic and officials hope the meeting will become an annual affair.
