

5,000 Expected At Game

Some 5,000 spectators are expected to turn out at Dudley Field Sunday afternoon as the El Paso Sun Kings open the home portion of their 1966 Texas League season against the Albuquerque Dodgers and pay tribute to Texas Western College's championship football and basketball teams.

Game time is 2:27 p.m., with pre-game festivities to begin at 2 p.m.

All members of the Texas Western football and basketball squads, coaching staffs and their families will be honored guests at the opener.

Another special guest will be Joe DiMaggio, the famed Yankee Clipper and member of Baseball's Hall of Fame.

The Texas Western athletes, in whose championship steps the Sun Kings hope to pattern their Texas League season, will participate in the pre-game activities.

Football coach Bobby Dobbs and Sun King coach Andy Cohen have been paired against TWC basketball coach Don Haskins and Sun King manager Chuck Tanner in a fungo-hitting contest.

Billy Stevens, who set passing records galore in leading the Miners to their 7-3 record and Sun Bowl championship last fall, and who recently was named El Paso's Athlete of the Year, will throw out the first ball to officially open the home season.

On special display at Dudley Field will be the Sun Bowl trophy and the NCAA basketball championship trophy won by TWC athletes this year.

Flag raising for the first game will be provided by the Pershing Rifles from TWC.

Also in a special box as guests of the club will be Dr. Joseph M. Ray, president of Texas Western College, and the TWC athletic director George McCarty.

Another group of special guests will be patients from William Beaumont Army Hospital.

In charge of the pre-game activities are Fred Herschleder and Bruce Brooks.

Sunday's game is first of a two-game set with the Dodgers, with Jim Holbrook, strong-armed right-hander, scheduled to hurl for the Kings.

Aubrey Gatewood, who hurled last year for the parent California Angels, is scheduled to pitch the second game of the set at 7:27 p.m. Monday.

Dudley Field ticket windows will open at 8 a.m. Sunday for convenience of early purchasers. Gates of the park will open at 12 noon for early arrivals.
