

Boy's Baseball Opening Nights Scheduled

Boys' baseball of El Paso will hold the season's opening ceremonies at Raymond Telles Field 6 p.m. Friday and Saturday. The 48 minor league teams will be honored the first night and the 48 major league teams on Saturday.

Chief Warrant Officer Lydic will conduct the 424th Army Band of Ft. Bliss 6-6:30 p.m. Friday, and bandmaster CWO Bilhartz will lead the 62nd band Saturday. Each team will be photographed during the music period.

Rev. Gene Hargrave of the First Christian Church will ask the invocation Friday and Rev. William Park Church will do so on Saturday. Irwin Lambka will act as Master of Ceremonies introducing members of the city parks and recreation department, past commissioners of Boys' Baseball and the present officers and directors. Current commissioner Bill Bostic will present the traveling Haynsworth Trophy to the person who has contributed the most in effort to boys' baseball during the past year.

Andy Cohen of baseball history will throw the first ball each night.

The teams invite all to attend their opening nights.
