

FORTY YEARS AGO

August 16, 1926

(Monday)

Slam-Bangs by Slam Marshall — Andy Cohen, El Pasoan and one of the best boys ever sent from here to major league baseball, has lost out. John McGraw of the Giants plans to trade Andy along with Clark Davies and Paul Florence to the Milwaukee club of the American Association for Pitcher Orwell and Catcher McMenemy, the prize battery of that league.