

UF Seeks Executive Backing

A program to enlist 1,800 executives of El Paso's larger firms was inaugurated during the initial training session of the Loaned Executives division of the United Fund campaign in Hotel Cortez.

The advance solicitation of executives, prior to the campaign kick-off Sept. 27 is a part of the new program to assure adequate coverage of the management personnel connected with firms employing more than 25 persons.

Since $20,000 additional has been established as the campaign goal for the Loaned Executive's Division, Chairman W. T. (Bill) Barnhouse and his organization of 32 volunteer executives will seek $363,200 from the employes of 243 firms in El Paso County.

Several local firms have volunteered to be members of a pilot campaign in a specific trade category to indicate what can be done when a group of employes organize for Fair Share giving. This program is currently under way in 14 firms.

This year the executive giving program is directed toward advance sign up of top management and middle-management personnel through Sept. 27.

Loaned executives serving in this year's campaign are James Alcorn, Frank Annunziato, Elden Brown, Lynn Brown, Dick Butchofsky, John Cahill, Andy Cohen, Gene DeDea, A. S. Downing, Robert Echlin, Ralph Frizzell, William Hall, Harlan Hanson, Tom Hussman, Jim Jones, W. J. Kennedy, Bill Langley, Carlos Leon, Neil McKensie, Ken Moreland, Dale Faulkner, Carl Olsen, Ken Persons, Tip Pinkerton, William S. Powers, Bill Purse, Gene Roberts, L. H. Rudd, Ralph Seitsinger, Leo Westbrook, Bill WiNiams and Randolph Young.

TO SEE PAINTING

The Tom Lea painting, the "Turning Point," which depicts a last minute victory pass of the University of Texas at El Paso Miners against the University of Utah last season, will be shown to El Paso Bar Association Tuesday. George McCarty, UTEP athletic director, will exhibit the painting and discuss the coming UTEP football season at the first Fall meeting of the Bar Association in Hotel Paso del Norte at noon.