

<https://www.newspapers.com/image/297641644/>

we hired Carl (ex-United Press) Lundquist as fulltime publicity man." . . . Cincinnati manager Birdie Tebbetts, due here for players' tourney, telling Sports Today in New York last week: "Frank Robinson has greatest control of arm muscles and wrists I've seen since Ted Williams." . . . Old friend Andy Cohen, who replaced Rogers Hornsby at second base for Giants in 1925 when The Rajah was traded, called from Miami International Airport the other day while enroute home from winter managing stint in Panama . . . New manager of Indianapolis, Andy confessed: "Boy, do I have my work cut out. Last year, all Kerby Ferrell did was win the American Association and the Little World Series and move up to replace Al Lopez as Cleveland manager." . . . Assistant manager Norm Durbin of Miami Springs golf club, getting ready for the baseball set, is an old basketball star at Seton Hall . . . His teacher: Bob Davis, the great . . . Miami Marlins manager Don Osborn thinks Columbus, fed by new working agreement with Kansas City, is International League team most likely to surprise . . . Six color movies of recent Orange Bowl game and attendant hoopla now being shipped over the nation, under direction of assistant manager Bob (DeMille) Breitenstein.

en-
got hav

Na
Ne
Guire
Caro
coach
Doc
dist
West
All-S ison
after