Stuart, April 8 — No fan can accuse manager Don Osborn of the Miami Marlins of being a selfish foreman.

Here's what Don told Seth Morehead, his fast young left-hander of last year, as the two parted at the Phillies' camp at Clearwater this spring: "I hope I never see you again in a Miami uniform. You throw as well as any lefthander in these United States.

"I want you to put that Phillies' uniform on and never leave it. Don't let me catch you coming back to pitch for Miami."

Answer to the last puzzler: Babe Ruth hit his first home run of that record 60 off Howard Ehmke, A's righthander, April 15, 1927 . . . What illustrious Orlando resident, pitching for the Browns in 1934, threw a 10-inning no-hitter, but lost, 2-1.

Postcards Bobby Shantz, Yankee pitcher: "Everything going okay so far. Jim Turner (Yankee pitching coach) is a real smart man."

Andy . Cohen, Indianapolis manager and old Giant infield replacement for Rogers Hornsby in 1928 (remember?) talking: "Ben Cantwell and Charley Root are the two pitchers who gave me the most trouble. Another might have been Satch Paige, but I only got to bat against him in one game back in 1929. No, I didn't even come close to getting a hit off him."

Marlin pitcher Bob Conley had a special spring thrill while with the Phillies this spring: "I got a bases-loaded single off Joe Nuxhall of Cincinnati. Man, that was living."
