

SPORTS TODAY

By Norris Anderson

Cardwell Lacks Only A Curve, Says Rocky

BUFFALO, N.Y., June 26—Rocky Nelson, the Toronto slugger, told me: "Don Cardwell (of the Marlins) is going to be a big winner in the majors as soon as he sharpens his curve ball — he's got everything else." Montreal third baseman Clyde (Dude) Parris lists Cardwell as the top pitcher in the league, along with Rochester's Gary Blaylock and Bill Greason. . . . Boston Red Sox fans are giving manager Pinky Higgins a rough time . . . Former Cleveland shortstop extraordinary Lou Boudreau saying: "Bill Mazeroski (the young Pittsburgh shortstop) has a chance of being every bit as good as Joe Gordon — he's the best in the National League right now." . . . Yankee Hank Bauer on Red Sox pitcher Frank Baumann: "He's the only lefthander in the league who throws as hard as Herb Score." . . . Yankee

Cardwell

Whitey Ford's kids have nicknamed their poodle "Casey" — after some bloomin' manager . . . 1939: Hitler inks pact with Stalin; Sugar Ray Robinson wins Golden Gloves featherweight title . . . Long shot dep't: Denver manager Andy Cohen to someday manage the Yankees and become the first Jewish manager in the majors. Andy is a longtime friend of mine and is the quickest thinker on a baseball field I ever saw.

Want To Win A World Series Trip?

Want to win an all-expense paid trip to the opening game of the 1958 World Series from Art Bruns of the Miami Springs Villas? . . . Or six worthy runnerup prizes? . . . Send to Norris Anderson, Sports Today, Miami News; (1) Your eight-team order of finish in both the National and American Leagues, (2) Your prediction for the batting champion of each league and his winning percentage . . . Earliest postmark wins in case of tie, so get 'em in early . . . There is no limit to the number of entries you can send . . . This Series trip goes to the entry picking nearest to the order of finish and batting champions . . . The other prizes include: second, a week at the Silver Sands Motel (for two) on Key Biscayne . . . Third, $100 in merchandise from Art Ungar's Buick Agency . . . Fourth, $100 worth of dancing lessons from the Arthur Murray Studio . . . Fifth, a weekend (for two) at the Castaways Motel . . . Sixth, $50 in merchandise from The Slack Bar . . . Seventh, a weekend's dining (for two) at Jack Goldman's Hickory House on the Beach.

Gordon